Remarks

Situated on approximately 1.29 acres across two lots according to county records, this well-maintained brick home offers space, functionality, and a prime location just outside of Davis. The property features highway frontage, an attached garage, mature trees, and a fenced backyard with patio space. A detached shop building provides additional storage or workspace. Inside, the home offers a functional layout with a large living area, fireplace with built-ins, spacious bedrooms, and a remodeled walk-in shower, updated windows throughout. Updated flooring is present in select areas, while other spaces offer opportunity for customization. Located just minutes from Davis and near Turner Falls and the Arbuckle Mountains, this property is well-suited for a primary residence, investment, or second home.
